

ACADEMIC TEAM

Professor Wenhua Shan 单文华

Email: shan@mail.xjtu.edu.cn

Professor Wenhua Shan holds a PhD from Trinity College, Cambridge and is the Yangtze River Chair Professor of International Economic Law (by Ministry of Education), Assistant president and the founding Dean of the School of Law at XJTU. He is also the founding Director of the XJTU Silk Road Institute for International and Comparative Law (SRIICL), the Convenor of the Collaborative Innovation Centre for Silk Road Economic Belt Studies (CIC-SREBS, jointly established by MOFCOM, Shaanxi Provincial Government and XJTU) and a Senior Fellow of the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law at the University of Cambridge.

Professor Wenhua Shan's research area is international and comparative law, particularly investment and trade laws. He is the lead advisor to the Chinese government on some key investment treaty negotiations, and has advised foreign governments, international organizations, and transnational corporations on international investment, trade and arbitration matters. He has authored over a dozen books published by English or Chinese publishers including Oxford University Press, and numerous articles in journals such as the European Journal of International Law and the American Journal of Comparative Law. He is also the founding Editor-in-Chief of The Chinese Journal of Comparative Law (OUP) and the Editor-in-General of the China and International Economic Law Series(Hart) and the Silk Road Studies in International Economic Law (BRILL), among others.

Professor Wenhua Shan is a frequent lecturer and has spoken before the European Parliament (Testimony on the EU-China BIT), the International Congress of Comparative Law (General Report on the Protection of Foreign Investment), Energy Charter Ministerial Conference (ISDS Reform), among others. He is a Titular Member of the International Academy of Comparative Law, a Member of the American Law Institute and the WEF/ICTSD E15 Task Force on Investment Policy, and an international advisor for the Fourth Restatement of the U.S. Foreign Relations Law, the ICSID Review and the IBA Subcommittee on Investment Treaty Arbitration

ACADEMIC TEAM

Professor James Crawford 詹姆斯·克劳福德

Email: j.crawford@icj-cij.org

Education:

B.A. in English and History-Politics, (1971); L.L.B. (first class honours), (1971); Stow Scholar; Australian Shell Scholar, (1971), Adelaide University. DPhil, (Oxon, 1977). L.L.D, (Cantab, 2004). Juris Doctor (honoriscausa), Pázmány Péter Catholic University of Budapest, (2005); University of Paris 1 Sorbonne, (2007); University of Amsterdam, (2014).

Employment:

Lecturer, (August 1974-1977); Senior Lecturer, (1977-1982); Reader, (1982-1983); Professor of Law (Personal Chair), (1983-1986), University of Adelaide. Australian Law Reform Commission, Commissioner (full-time), (1982-1984). Challis Professor of International Law, (1986-1992); Dean, Faculty of Law, (1990-1992), University of Sydney. Whewell Professor of International Law; Professorial Fellow of Jesus College (since 1992); Director, Lauterpacht Research Centre for International Law (1995-2003, 2006-2010); Chair, Faculty Board of Law (2003-2006), University of Cambridge. Research Professor of Law (part-time, 2011-2014), Latrobe University. Chang Jiang. Professorship, Xi'an Jiaotong University, People's Republic of China (since 2013).

Professional qualifications:

Barrister and Solicitor of the High Court of Australia (1977). Barrister of the Supreme Court of New South Wales (called 6 November 1987); Senior Counsel (appointed 7 November 1997). Barrister, Gray's Inn (called March 1999); Foundation Member of Matrix Chambers, Gray's Inn, London.

Governmental and Inter-governmental bodies:

Commissioner, (1982-1990) (part-time, 1984-1990), Australian Law Reform Commission. Member, Australian National Commission for UNESCO (1984-1988). Member, Advisory Committee on the Australian Judicial System, (Australia), Constitutional Commission, (1985-1987). Member, Admiralty Rules Committee (Australia), (1989-1992). Member, United Nations International Law Commission, (1992-2001).

Committees, Professional Associations:

President, Australasian Universities Law Schools Association, (1985). Fellow, British Academy (elected 2000). Member of the Curatorium, Hague Academy of International Law, (elected 1999). Associate (elected 1985); Member (since 1991), Institute de Droit international. Director of Studies, International Law Association, (1991-1997). Honorary Member, Maritime Law Association of Australia and New Zealand.

ACADEMIC TEAM

Professor Ma Zhiguo 马治国

Email: mazhiguo@mail.xjtu.edu.cn

Ma Zhiguo, post of director of the center, is PH.D supervisor in intellectual property, lawyer, arbitrator, and judicial expert in intellectual property, associate chairman of China Science and Technology Law Society and Specialty Committee of Research on Protection of Traditional Knowledge of World Federation of Chinese Medicine Societies, first “Selected Expert of National Intellectual Property Database”. He, the key expert of intellectual property strategic research, receives a first “China Science and Technology Law Outstanding Achievement Award”, a “National Intellectual Property Strategy-making Vital Contribution Award”, and “National Great Popularization of Social Science Figure”.

---

Professor Ma Minhu 马民虎

Email: mhma@mail.xjtu.edu.cn

Minhu Ma, Director of XJTU Information Security Law Research Center, Professor of Law School, PhD supervisor. Vice President of Cyber Security Association of China. Legislative consultant on Cryptogram law of the State Cryptogram Administration. Member of China Information Law Institute. President of Information Security Law Institute of Shaanxi Law Society.

---

Professor Desheng Hu 胡德胜

Email: deshenghu@126.com

Professor Desheng Hu, LLB (Peking University, China), PhD (University of Dundee, UK). His research focuses on international and comparative study in the field of policy, law and science concerning the environment, natural resources and energy. He is skilled in interdisciplinary research. He has authored monographs and articles, contributed to various books in English and Chinese, and translated works from English to Chinese.

ACADEMIC TEAM

Professor Wang Baomin 王保民

Email: baominwang@mail.xjtu.edu.cn

Wang Baomin, Professor of Law, PHD from Law School of Peking University, now acting as deputy dean of School of Law, Director of Legislation & Social Governance in XJTU, currently Part-time Lawyer practiced in Beijing Zhongyin (Xi'an) Law firm. Once Sino-American Fulbright VRS (School of Law UC Berkeley), Visiting scholar of Belgium Free University. Courses taught including Jurisprudence, Legal Methodology, Legislation study, History of Western Legal thoughts, Law and Governance etc. Areas of Expertise: Jurisprudence and Legal philosophy; Administrative Law and Constitutional Law (Mainly Legislation, Public Law theory); Comparative Law.

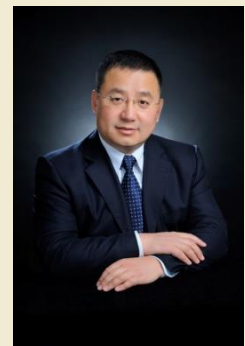

---

李万强

Email: liwanqiang@mail.xjtu.edu.cn

Li Wanqiang is Vice Dean and Tengfei Professor of Law at XJTU School of Law. Before coming to XJTU, he taught at Xiamen University School of Law. He was a visiting scholar at Yale Law School from August, 2003 to September, 2004. Professor Li's subject areas are international economic law, Chinese economic and commercial law, and international commercial arbitration. He has written dozens of articles (including SSCI journal articles) and books on these subjects and won about twenty awards for his teaching and research achievements. Professor Li received his LL.B. (1993) and LL.M. (1996) from China University of Political Science and Law and his J.S.D. (1999) from Xiamen University.

ACADEMIC TEAM

刘桥

Email: q.liu@xjtu.edu.cn

Prof. Dr. Qiao Liu is currently a Tengfei Professor of Law in Xian Jiaotong University (China) and an Associate Professor in the TC Beirne School of Law, University of Queensland (Australia). He obtained his DPhil in law from the University of Oxford. Prior to joining the School in 2007, Professor Liu lectured at the University of the West of England (Bristol) since 2005. He has also taught part-timely at the University of Leicester and the Shanghai Institute of Foreign Trade. He was a Lee Kai Shing Visiting Professor at the Faculty of Law, McGill University from January to June 2016 and a visiting scholar at the Harvard Law School from July to August 2012. Prof Liu teaches and researches in contract, commercial law and Chinese law, with a particular interest in comparative study of Chinese and Anglo-Australian private law. He has published in the Modern Law Review, American Journal of Comparative Law, the Cambridge Law Journal, the Sydney Law Review, Legal Studies, Lloyd's Maritime and Commercial Law Quarterly and University of New South Wales Law Journal (all A* journals according to the 2010 ARC ranking table). His book entitled Anticipatory Breach (Hart Publishing Oxford 2011) was extensively cited as an authority in the area by the Singapore Court of Appeal in The "STX Mumbai" [2015] SGCA 35 and has been favourably reviewed by a leading scholar as being 'persuasive... to contemporary courts, and especially to the UK Supreme Court' and '[tending] to bring English law into harmony with other European systems'. Professor Liu coauthored a leading contract text with Professor Ewan McKendrick of the University of Oxford, Contract Law (Australian Edition), which was recently published by Palgrave Macmillan (2015). He also translated Peter Birks' seminal book 'Unjust Enrichment' (2nd edn OUP 2005) into Chinese (Tsinghua University Press, 2012). He serves currently as the Executive Deputy Editor-in-Chief of the Chinese Journal of Comparative Law (OUP) and holds membership or executive roles in a number of academic societies in the UK, China and Europe as well as in Australia. He was elected a member of the International Academy of Comparative Law early 2013. He was a member of a small expert group working with the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law (UNCITRAL) Secretariat on the updating of the Digest on the Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods. Prof. Liu has obtained several major research funds in both Australia and China including a highly prestigious ARC Discovery Early Career Researcher Award, a UQ Foundation Research Excellence Award, and a New Century Excellent Talents Award from the Chinese Ministry of Education.

ACADEMIC TEAM

王江雨

Email: lawwjy@nus.edu.sg

Dr. Wang Jiangyu (SJD & LLM, University of Pennsylvania; MJur, Oxford; MPhil in Laws, Peking University; LLB, China University of Political Science and Law) is an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law of the National University of Singapore. He was on secondment as an Associate Professor at the Faculty of Law of The Chinese University of Hong Kong from August 2006 to July 2009. His teaching and research interests include international economic law, corporate and securities law, law and development, Chinese legal system, and human rights in China. He practiced law in the Legal Department of Bank of China and Chinese and American law firms. He served as a member of the Chinese delegation at the annual conference of the United Nations Commission on International Trade Law Conference in 1999. He is a member of the Chinese Bar Association and the New York Bar Association. He is also a director on the Executive Board of the WTO Institute of the China Law Society, a Senior Fellow at the Law and Development Institute (LDI), and a fellow of the Asian Institute of International Financial Law (Hong Kong). He has also been invited expert/speaker for the WTO, International Trade Centre (UNCTAD/WTO) and United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific (UNESCAP). He recently received the 2007 Young Research Award of The Chinese University of Hong Kong in recognition of his accomplishment in research from 2006-2007. Dr. Wang has published extensively in Chinese and international journals and newspapers on a variety of law and politics related topics. He is a regular contributor to leading newspapers and magazines in Singapore, Hong Kong, and mainland China.

苏金远

Email: js.su@mail.xjtu.edu.cn

Jinyuan Su is currently a Professor at Xi'an Jiaotong University School of Law, China. His research interests lie in outer space law, the law of the sea, and international aviation law. Dr. Su holds a PhD in International Law from Xi'an Jiaotong University. He was an Erin J.C. Arsenault Fellow (2014-2015) at the McGill Institute of Air and Space Law, a visiting research fellow (2009-2010) at the Lauterpacht Centre for International Law, University of Cambridge, and a visiting scholar (2008-2009) at School of Law, King's College London. Dr. Su is a member of Governance Group of the Space Security Index (SSI), a core expert in the International Space Law Group of the Manual on International Law Applicable to Military Uses of Outer Space (MILAMOS) project, a member (2016-2018) of the Global Future Council on Space Technologies of the World Economic Forum (WEF), and a lead drafter for the McGill Global Space Governance (GSG) project.

ACADEMIC TEAM

David Holloway

Email: dh@no5.com

David Holloway joins the school as a professor from the University of East Anglia in the UK. He has held previous UK faculty positions at the University of Essex and the University of Edinburgh.

David is a law graduate of Cambridge University having studied law, philosophy and German at Churchill College Cambridge. David also pursued postgraduate studies in law and economics obtaining a Master's Degree from Erasmus University Rotterdam.

David has extensive experience in international legal practice. He has practiced as a barrister in London since 1998 and remains a member of Number 5 chambers in London.

Throughout his career in practice David has been involved almost exclusively in international and multijurisdictional work. He has acted as counsel in international cases before the English courts at all levels including in various high profile cases which have been reported in the English law reports.

David also has particular expertise in international arbitration. He has represented international clients in arbitrations administered by most leading arbitral institutions and in ad hoc arbitrations, with particular experience of cases involving international trade and commodities and in the oil and gas industry.

David has more recently been appointed as arbitrator by and to the panels of various arbitral institutions including the LCIA and the South China International Economic and Trade Arbitration Commission/Shenzhen Court of International Arbitration.

David's teaching and research interests mirror his experience and expertise in practice and his work concentrates on the fields of international arbitration, international dispute settlement, English/ international commercial law and international trade law. David is regularly invited to present at international academic conferences and events in these areas.

David is the General Editor (since 1998) of International Arbitration Law Review (Sweet & Maxwell, London) and co-author of Schmitthoff: the Law and Practice of International Trade (Sweet & Maxwell, London).

