Xi'an Jiaotong University

CHINESE LANGUAGE PROGRAM (XI'AN)

Xi'an Jiaotong University (XJTU), founded in 1896, is a national key university directly under the administration of China's Ministry of Education. As one of China's top ten research-intensive universities and a member of the C9 League—China's equivalent of the Ivy League—it operates as a comprehensive research university, encompassing 11 major disciplinary categories, including science, engineering, medicine, economics, management, humanities, law, philosophy, art, education, and interdisciplinary studies. 4484 international students from 128 countries and regions are pursuing their studies at XJTU. In 2013, the university was designated by China's Ministry of Education as a "Demonstration Base for International Education". In 2024, XJTU achieved the highest rating of Class A+ in the re-certification of higher education quality for international students in China. In the 2026 Best Chinese Universities Ranking, XJTU secured the 10th position.

PROGRAM INTRODUCTION

The Chinese Language Program at Xi'an Jiaotong University is designed to build a solid foundation in Chinese language and communication skills for international students. The curriculum incorporates Chinese culture into language teaching, fostering students' intercultural competence. It also aims to enhance students' performance on the HSK examination. A formal transcript and certificate of completion will be issued to students who have successfully completed their courses.
